

INTRODUCING

Meet our newest Bylaw Compliance and Enforcement Officer for Cultus Lake Park

Michael Pickett has recently relocated to the area from Downtown Vancouver and is eager to start building positive and productive relationships with the members of the community.

In 1998, Michael started out working in the Personal Protection and Private Investigation side of the security industry. He later began his enforcement career with the City of Vancouver working as a Bylaw Parking Enforcement Officer and a Municipal Ticket Screener and since 2017 he has worked as a Bylaw Enforcement Officer with the City of Coquitlam. Michael has been formally trained in Bylaw Compliance, Enforcement and Investigative Skills, Violence Risk Assessment and Management and has certificates in Conflict and Violence Prevention.

If you happen to see Michael around the community, say hello and introduce yourself.
